

May Election Calendar

Updated Nov. 22, 2021

For a City's General Election on May 7, 2022

This calendar includes all major actions for which the Election Code prescribes a specific date or deadline for performance, but it does not include actions for which the beginning date for performance can vary from one city to another (for example, preparation of voting equipment and forms). Each city secretary should use the chart in §1.62 of the Texas Municipal Election Law Manual (6th edition) [abbreviated as M] together with this calendar to fill in those dates on the city secretary's personal election calendar. The city secretary's personal calendar should reflect dates that the city secretary prefers in place of the discretionary dates recommended in this calendar.

All dates in column 1 are 2022 unless noted otherwise. Column 5 indicates the time interval between the date of the action and election day. For example, the notation 50th in the entry for March 18 means that the day for beginning mandatory office hours is the 50th day before election day; the notation "+10" in the entry for May 17 means that the last day for the presiding judge of the early voting ballot board to mail to voters notices of rejected mail ballots is the 10th day after election day. An asterisk (*) in Column 5 indicates the time stated is not required by statute.

Major steps are in ALL CAPS. Steps for early voting are in ITALICS. A dashed line in the table indicates separate deadlines or events that fall on the same day. Always verify that the latest version of the calendar on the TMCA's website (under resources).

In general, when there is a statutory provision prescribing the last day for the performance of an act, the number in Column 5 reflects that day. If the statutory day must be moved because of a Saturday, Sunday, or state or national holiday, the resulting date is designated in Columns 1 and 2, and Column 5 indicates, in parentheses and italics, the actual number of days measured from election day. Sometimes, early compliance is recommended and noted in the columns.

In preparing a personal calendar, the city secretary should remember the rule in Election Code §1.006 that if the last day for performance of an action falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or a state or national holiday, the deadline date is usually extended to the next regular business day whether the day is a city holiday or not [see M §1.52(b)]. When a deadline is extended for this reason, the extended date is used for determining other dates that are calculated in relation to the event of the extended date. Exceptions are noted in this calendar. When reading a section of the Election Code, the city secretary should remember to read the chapter and subchapter titles to determine if the section applies to cities.

To prepare a calendar for a runoff election, see M §§12.01-.02; for a special election to fill a vacancy in office, see M §12.03; for a special election on a measure, see generally M §12.12.

Endnotes

1. The following information must be posted on a city's website [M §2.14(d)], if the city maintains a website [M §1.53]: (1) the city's contact information, including a mailing address, telephone number, and e-mail address; (2) each elected officer of the city; (3) the date and location of the next election for officers of the city; (4) the requirements and deadline for filing for candidacy of each elected office of the city for the next election (posted one year prior to the date of that election); (5) notice of city council meetings; and (6) minutes of city council meetings. A city with population of less than 5,000 located in a county with population of less than 25,000 does not have to post (5) and (6).
2. The city's governing body may choose to conduct a mock student election under EC §276.007. The major steps taken for a general election should be taken for a student election. The student election may be held on the first day before the election, but results must not be published until after the polls close on election day.
3. Follow home-rule city's charter provision, if any.
4. If a candidate on the ballot dies on or before the filing deadline, the City Secretary MAY choose to remove the candidate from the ballot, in which case, the filing deadline is extended 5 days. If that extended filing deadline for filing falls on a weekend or holiday, it is extended to the next business day.

*An asterisk in Column 5 indicates the time stated is not required by statute.

Withdrawal deadlines after the extended filing deadlines will also be impacted. In other words, the Monday, March 7 filing deadline for a special election to fill a vacancy ordered on or before the 70th day before election day would be extended to Monday, March 14, and the withdrawal deadline for that extended deadline would be Saturday, March 19 (the withdrawal deadline does NOT move to the next business day [EC §145.092(c)]). The Monday, March 28 filing deadline for a special election to fill a vacancy ordered after the 70th day but on or before the 46th day before election day would be extended to Monday, April 4, and the withdrawal deadline for that extended deadline would be Saturday, April 9 (the withdrawal deadline does NOT move to the next business day).

5. See Texas Ethics Commission rules [1 TAC §18.31] for the full list of 2022 threshold reporting dollar amounts. The following is a summary of the most common ones [M Ch. 3]:
